- The Gaylord Opryland requires a certificate of insurance from all exhibitors. Review their requirements below and submit the certificate directly to them by February 19. Don't forget to also submit the required food sampling forms!
- Exhibitors using an Exhibitor Appointed Contractor to set-up/dismantle their space (other than GES, the official contractor) must have their EAC submit a COI to GES by February 19.

Exhibitor and Exhibitor Appointed Contractor Insurance Coverage Requirements

All Exhibitors are required to carry insurance that adequately covers the Exhibitor and its property from theft, public liability, product liability, property damage, personal injury, and other loss or liability that may be incurred at or in connection with the Annual Meat Conference.

Exhibitor shall purchase commercial general liability insurance, placed with a financially stable insurance carrier, which insures Exhibitor's operations and obligations under this agreement. Said policy shall have limits of no less than $1,000,000 per occurrence. The foregoing insurance is a minimum requirement and shall in no way limit the liability of the Exhibitor.

Additionally, an Exhibitor utilizing an Exhibitor Appointed Contractor (EAC) for set-up/dismantle of booth space must have the EAC provide evidence of insurance (certificate of insurance) in the amount of no less than $2,000,000 in general liability coverage.

You may purchase insurance through Rainprotection, the official insurance supplier for the Annual Meat Conference, if you do not have your own, or would rather not use your own insurance.
